Jay Jones interviews Michael Larkin, Executive Director of the Anaheim YMCA, and former police officer. Answering Jay's question why crime is increasing and especially among the youth, Larkin says the biggest factor is the deterioration of the family. With both parents working, or have single parent families, and so many distractions, the youth are left alone with no one to talk to, and often no one to help them when arrested. Larkin points out that drugs or alcohol are linked to most crimes. Often they start with drugs as early as eight to ten years of age. He urges parents and communities to get involved and make the youth accountable to somebody. The occult and Satanic groups are attractive because they accept the lonely children.

Panelists: Dr. Mary Branch, President of Bible Talk School of Faith and author of From Crack To Christ ; Dr. Charles Laken, Director of Faith Farm Facilities Therapy Unit; Officer Alex Racio, Coordinator of "Just Say No To Drugs." After a roll-in depicting an addict's problems and alienation from parents, the panel discusses the video. | DRUG/ALCOHOL ABUSE | Feedback #160 Attorney Harold Ray presents a program focusing on "Drugs In The Community". He discusses the problem with two guests: Dr. Mack King Carter, Pastor of Mount Olive Baptist Church, Ft. Lauderdale; Judge Larry Baraka, a taped interview. Dr. Carter, pastor of a 5000 member black Baptist Church, literally mobilized his community and in so doing received national attention as a result of seeing what drugs were doing to the community of Fort Lauderdale. At a town meeting he organized at his church, legislators, drug enforcement administrators, U.S. Customs Officials, Coast Guard Representatives, U.S. Attorneys, Federal judges, police chiefs, county commissioners and mayors. As a result, an impact has been made in curbing drug abuse. Judge Baraka suggests alternatives to consider instead of prison. | L | PA/O | 01-11-90 1:30am 01-17-90 5:00pm | 28:45 28:45 |
| DRUG/ALCOHOL ABUSE | Joy 0104-90 Jay Jones interviews Sherry Metcalfe, President of MADD (Mothers Against Drunk Drivers). Sherry believes that the non-drinkers should let their voices be heard in attempting to stop drinking and driving. MADD campaigns to educate the public to always have a designated driver, hopefully two. Drinking and driving is a choice. Sherry contends that parents need to take a special part in the fight against drunk driving. The sad part of drunk driving is that the victims are often not the ones drinking. Arrests of drunk drivers are up 25% this past year. Sherry's parents were both killed by a drunk driver. | N | PA/O | 01-04-90 6:30am 01-17-90 6:30am | 56:48 56:48 |

Having been an alcoholic himself, Bob understands the alcoholic, and Pauline, formerly addicted to Valium, understands how drugs can enslave a person. They present a 12 step program with Christ as the Higher Power to help lead the addict to overcoming. The addict only remembers the good times, so drinks again and again. Attorney Harold Ray moderates a panel discussion on literacy and the education program in the U.S. Panelists: Eudeen M. Mott, President of Tel-The Vision Productions, Pompano Beach, Florida; Dr. Reginald Browne, Clinical psychologist, Lauderhill, Florida; Regina Frazier, National President of "The Links, Inc," Miami, Florida. Motts favors programs such as her company produces which is the use of television and video. Others disagree in that such education eliminates the motivation for the student to learn to read and write well. It conditions them to pictorial signs and reinforces their dependence on television. Mott responds that there should be alternatives when certain types of academic training is rejected by the student. Browne points out that because our society is a melting pot of many languages and cultures, it may be necessary to incorporate such devices, but it can become a handicapping system. Because of the high rate of drop outs, new techniques must be devised to give quality education to all students, especially new immigrants.

| CRIME | Feedback #166 Attorney Harold Ray moderates a panel discussion on crime with special reference to using neighborhood watches to fight against it. Panelists: Captain William Burn, Ft. Lauderdale Police Department; Cynthia Wood, Neighborhood Crime Fighter; Jerry Kolo, Assistant Professor of Urban and Regional Planning, Florida Atlantic University; and Carolyn Homer, Ft. Lauderdale Police Aide. They defined the vigilante group who try to take things into their own hands. They discuss ways to help citizens eliminate the fear they feel in getting involved should they report what they see. Neighborhoods need to be taught how to effectively cooperate with all authorities; city, county, state, and federal levels. | L | PA/O | 04-16-90 12:30p | 28:45 |

| CRIME | Miami Praise The Lord 0511-90 Pastor Isaiah Williams and his wife, Gloria, host an interview with Ira Andrus, a bus driver for the school system in Dade County. Andrus got himself into a lot of serious trouble with the law and spent a considerable amount of time in prison. Twice, Andrus escaped from prison in Florida and from there he wound up in maximum security in Kentucky for six years. After this, he was put back in prison in Florida and escaped again. He spent time in the penitentiary and the list goes on. Finally, he met the Lord whom he shares if the only deterrent to crime and the life he was leading. Jesus, he concludes, is the only person that can hold a person's life! | L | PA/O | 05-11-90 11:30a | 59:48 |

| | Isaiah and Gloria Williams interview Gil Fernandez, Jr., owner of the Apollo Gym in Fort Lauderdale. Fernandez shares that back in 1976, he was a Metro Police Officer. In 1979, he was put on the cover of the Miami Herald as one of the meanest officers on the force hooked on steroids, cocaine, alcohol, and driven by lust, greed, and pride. A criminal in officer's clothing is what he amounted to. Through the prayers of his wife, who cried out to God for his soul, Gil came to know the Lord Jesus Christ as his personal Lord and Savior. Today, Fernandez is using this Apollo Gym which was once know for it's drugs and prostitution, to minister the love of Jesus to those who are in the same shoes now that Fernandez once wore. | | | | |
| CRIME | Joy 528-90 | N | PA/O | 05-28-90 9:30a | 27:45 |
| | Jay Jones interviews Officer Mario Asturias of the Irvine Police Department. Officer Asturias warns that property theft is the most popular crime: breaking into cars and houses, stealing cars and household items. He recommends good neighborhood watch programs to deter crime. Even children are taught to steal by crawling through doggie doors. Domestic crimes are on the rise: child abuse, spousal abuse, violence, and other types of delinquent behavior lead to various types of crime. | | | | |
| CRIME | Joy 0530-90 | N | PA/O | 05-30-90 9:30a | 27:45 |
| | Keith Phillips, President of World Impact, discusses with Jay Jones ways his organization is attempting to address the rising crime rate, especially among youth, even children. Author of No Quick Fix , Phillips describes the breakdown of the family unit and its impact on several areas: the deterioration of education, the rise in use of drugs, the rise in crime, and in general delinquency. Lack of parental support, due to divorce or simply one parent homes, poverty, lack of supervision, all contribute to first, petty thievery, then use of drugs, then sale of drugs, then more serious crimes. Phillips has opened schools to reach the dropouts, and has begun churches to teach them about the hope available to them through Jesus. | | | | |

| | Pastor Ralph Diaz and wife, Joanna, host an interview with Len and Sandra LeSourd. Sandra LeSourd, author of The Compulsive Woman , shares with us about how at one time she was an alcoholic and drug addict and wound up in a mental institution because of it! Some women prayed for her to have a sound mind and they told her that Jesus loved her. When she spoke the name of Jesus something broke in her and her recovery process began from that day forth. Today, she is totally delivered and set free. | | | | |

| | Attorney Harold Ray moderates a panel discussion on the pervasiveness of drugs and alcohol in society, especially among the youth, some of the causes, their effect on the families, and some ways to control and, hopefully, prevent use and/or addiction. Panelists: Rev. Mike Brown, Director of Ft. Lauderdale Rescue Tabernacle's Faith Farm, Boynton Beach, Florida; Dr. Chuck Lakin, Director of Alpha Training at the Faith Farm; Mr. Bob Bashaw, instructor in Alpha training at the Faith Farm, himself a former alcoholic. To indicate the magnitude of the problems resulting from the compulsive use of drugs and alcohol, the Federal Government has allocated half a billion dollars to develop programs and research into the monstrous problem. The 200 or more different types of support groups in the area addressing this problem are seeing more violence, more drug wars, more drop-outs from school, teen suicide, and divorce rates. | | | | |
